Our Services

> With our expertise we develop extensions and interfaces, migrate complex data sources and implement BlueSpice in sophisticated software landscapes.

We are the leading specialist for software development around MediaWiki and BlueSpice.
Our focus is on the development of a sustainable software:

• The use and development of open-source software makes you strategically independent of a vendor
• The use of frameworks, the implementation of web standards, a high degree of standardization ensure the stability and maintainability of the developed software
• Professional planning, project management and documentation reduce the development risk and avoid unnecessary effort

When is a programming contingent recommended?

The programming contingent is the solution for rather „agile" development projects. For buyers contingents have also proven to be the simplest accounting method for ongoing programming tasks.

Billable services

• Enhancement of functions
• Programming of new extensions and plugins
• Development of skins and user interfaces
• Connection to other application programs
• Migration projects from external source systems (e.g. Word documents, Lotus Notes, etc.)
• Project Management
• Documentation

More than 80.000 downloads in 160 countries.

BlueSpice is a brand of Hallo Welt! GmbH, Germany's leading service provider for MediaWiki solutions. Our company was founded to make the technology and concepts of Wikipedia usable for companies. That's why we have been developing the collaborative knowledge management system BlueSpice since 2007. The platform is now used in more than 160 countries worldwide with over 80,000 downloads.

With our growing team of around 18 employees, we develop solutions for knowledge and quality management, IT- and technical documentation as well as organization manuals and wiki-based customer service and support solutions. By providing a complete and relevant set of accompanying services, we ensure that wiki projects are carried out in a structured manner. We consistently focus on open source software and are one of the world's leading providers and consultants for MediaWiki.
